Dear Robert,

It has taken me a long time to answer letters, and yours is a special one, for you need a reply. As far as I can hope, I'll be glad to be a part of the panel, but please don't ask me to prepare any stated subject, for my spare time is spent in chasing to doctors, much as I hate it.

My nephew John's oldest child will graduate from High School this coming Sat. and they were most anxious I should come up - would even come for me, but I said that was too much. Then Gertrude wanted to come for me and take
